MRS. INGRAM DIES

Mrs. John Ingram, wife of a former solicitor of the Mineral Wealth in Kingman, died at her home in Prescott a few days ago. Mrs. Ingram was in poor health when she left here, but it was understood that she was well on the road to complete recovery. Her death will be keenly felt by her many friends in Kingman, and the condolences of the people of this part of the county are extended to the bereaved husband.

AUTOS TO COAST

Guy Mensch and wife, accompanied by Miss Emma Martinez, L. J. Friedel and wife, W. T. Clack, Etta McLean and some others, departed last Sunday afternoon to the coast by automobile. They expected to make the trip in a little over a day.

RETURNS FROM COAST

Walter Tate, one of the contractors on the Walnut Creek mines, returned from a two weeks' trip to the coast the first of the week. He reports that the boys at the mine now have the tunnel in a distance of over 400 feet, and are driving it ahead at a rate of 120 feet per month.
